SUMMER 2019

The most critical stretch of your investment lifetime is retirement.

Our recent challenges have proven that, if we can change the way we live, we can change the way we invest, too.

The essence of retirement planning is preparing for the unexpected. When you need help with the financial uncertainties of retirement, turn to the experts.

America's Retirement Experts possess the skills and experience to design strategies that allow you to get the most from your later years.

Meet America's Retirement Experts

KARLAN TUCKER COLORADO

It has been Karlan Tucker's privilege to serve more than 5,000 retirees over the past 38 years. Many were not financially positioned for a retirement of 20-30 years, so he designed plans for them that protected their savings, preserved their standard of living and provided secured monthly income. He is the Founder/CEO of five firms in the Tucker Financial Group with more than $4 billion in assets under advisement.
